

TOWN OF MOUNT GILEAD
Board of Commissioners Meeting
Budget Retreat
February 18, 2017

The Mt. Gilead Board of Commissioners met on Saturday, February 18, 2017, at Jordan Lumber & Supply for their annual Budget Retreat FY 2017-2018.

The Board members were present: Mayor Joseph Miller, Jr.; Mayor Pro-Tem Tim McAuley; Commissioners: Paula Covington, Branson Webb, and Mitch Taylor.

Staff Members present: Town Manager Matthew Christian, Town Clerk Mary Lucas, Assistant Town Clerk Lessie Jackson, Maintenance Supervisor Daniel Medley, Police Chief Patrick Preslar, and Fire Chief Keith Byrd.

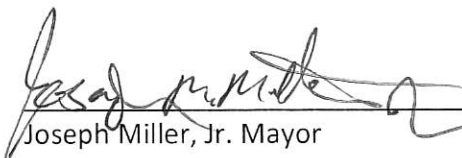

Town Manager Matthew Christian opened the Budget Retreat. He expressed the purpose of this retreat is not to complete the FY 2017-2018 Budget, but to have budget discussion on the priorities and goals of each department.

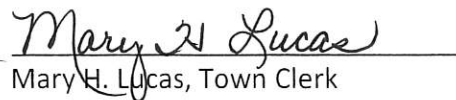

Each department head discussed and reviewed their goals and needs for the upcoming fiscal year through power point. The board learned of concerns that each department had that could be necessary for them to perform their jobs and keep the town in the best of shape according to all of the state rules and regulations.

Town Manager Matthew Christian reviewed with the board concerns and suggestions he had for the upcoming fiscal year.

There was plenty of discussion by board members and staff, but no decisions were made during this meeting.

From now through June 2017, board members and staff will be meeting the 3rd Tuesday of each month until FY 2017-2018 Budget is completed.
